District Mothers Hold Convention.

The District branch of the National t a red-letter day in the annals of the

It being the first convention, the program was devoted entirely to the vital projects with which the organization is concerned at present and upon which it plans to devote its best energies in the future. After the invocation by Rev. Mr. Prettyman, chaplain of the Senate, the morning session included inspiring ad-illustrated lecture on "Mothercraft," by new president, Max Mincosky, appointed Miss Mary L. Reed, of New York, and the following new committees: Literary, O. H. Benson's encouraging address with Misses Wolf and Cooper and Messrs. its spiendid pictures on "Home Gardens." Jame, Ali Kuli Kahn told her hearers in her usual charming manner of the mother and child or Persia, and Mrs. Elsie Cole Phillips, assistant secretary to the Milwaukee Child Welfare Commission. sole most ably on "Conservation of the bold a pastroned anshoes meeting at the nounced later.

Vocal and instrumental music by Mrs George Metcalf, Miss Metcalf, Mrs. Carl Studier, and Miss E. C. Bender, with peadings by Rev. John T. Huddle, D. D. of Edwin Callow ("Tony the Barber"). The Anthony League met as usual add this program most entertaining last Tuesday at its informal "at connection with the convention there home." Mrs. Hendley continued her good Edwin Callow ("Tony the Barber")

Furthe Liberty Monday evening, April

The president, Mrs. Claxton, was present, but do not occupy the chair.

Monday In the antener of the first vice president.
Mos. Hiestls: Miss Jessie A. Griswold. become vice presented presided. The recording recreatory, Mrs. Hamilton, being also at. Mrs. C. A. Thomas acted as fractions, and most ingle close the recording recreatory. A record alconosis make a complete the manifest of the Monday Eventines. The subject for the Monday Eventines of higher does. Letters on the red by the min the Y. M. C. A. Building, Institute of the Stephen will be "Feeble-mindedness in Patriots."

The April meeting of the executive Committee of the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots.

The April meeting of the executive Committee of the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots.

The April meeting of the executive Committee of the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots.

The April meeting of the executive Committee of the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America was held Tuesday morning at the Hotel Raleigh. The national president Mrs. William Van Zandt (of America was held Tuesday morning at the Hotel Raleigh. The national president Mrs. William Van Zandt (of America was held Tuesday morning at the Hotel Raleigh. The national president Mrs. William Van Zandt (of Nacivelle. Tour. Mrs. Claxbook, Cab., for Nacivelle. Tour. Mrs. Claxbook, Cab., for Nacivelle. Tour. Mrs. Claxbook (of the District of Columbia.

The ambient of feeble-minded persons in the District of Columbia.

The above the discussed by Dr. William A. White discussed by Dr. William A. White superintendent of the possessined and those accretical would be symmetred to the medium of by Ir. Alexander Graham Bell. This less also and the President of the Iris of the Insanc, and by Ir. Alexander Graham Bell. This record vice president, presided. The reed Miss Adelaide Steele Baylor, In-dianapolis, Ind., special educational work: Mrs. Cora Gannaway Williams. The Morning Glery Mrs. Carolyn Egbert Whitney, Little-Rock, Ark., associate editor of Arkansas Gazette and contributor to Little Rock Festival Association; Mrs. Jean W. Lowney, Pittsburgh, Pn., contributor to magazines and newspaners; Mrs. Kathtotal staff: Mrs. David Allen Campbell, Chicago, Ill., editor and publisher, "Ms. sical Monitor: Miss Ina Capitola Emery, Washington, D. C., publisher, editor and literary critic, book, "The Washinston Monument Guaic." Mrs. Augustus Knight, Washington, D. C., writer of short stories and hook, "Christmas Under Various Flags." Mrs. Ella Marcus Bull, Washington, D. C., secressonient for Atlanta Constitution, Miss Marcella Maloy, Washington, D. C., special feature writer, Washington Stat. Washington Star.

from 5 to 1 and this will take the place herself in Fairfax County, Va. of the midmonth meeting.

Activities of District D. A. R. born National Association and activities of District D. A. R. born National Association and activities of District D. A. R. born National Association and activities of District D. A. R. born National Association Chapters.

The John Lindsay Chapter, D. A. R., held its April meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Myron J. Ferren. At New York avenue. The regent, Mrs. Ellis Logan, presided. The administration of Mrs. William Cumming Story, president general, D. A. R., was unanimously indorsed. The chapter voted to purclasse several feet of land adjoining. Continental Memorial Hall, also to con-Continental Memorial Hall; also to contribute toward keeping open the special session for the foreign night classes memorial. The descendants of John Lindsay contributed $25 to purchas rest for St. John's Broad Creek Church. One new member was admitted.

Entertains Excelsior Literary Club.

The Excelsior Literary Club was entermined Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. El-lis Logan, president of the D. C. F. W. C., at her home, in Irving street. Mrs. C., at her home, in Irving street. Mrs. J. Edson Briggs, the club's president, presided, and Mrs. A. R. Tracy, corre-sponding secretary, was in attendance. By invitation, Mrs. Daniel Lothrop was present, and spoke of the work of the C. A. R. Mrs. Clayton Emig told of the local C. A. R. chapters, and Mrs. Wendell. of the John Lindsey Chapter, favored the club with a recitation. Mrs. Edward Hardy, president of the Colum-bia Heights Art Club, brought a greeting and Campanile of Florence. An Easter greeting from Mrs. Fannie M. Page, who is in California, was read by Mrs. Hawkes, and short sketches were given by Mrs. Ragan, Mrs. McCreery, Mrs. Emma Gravatt, and Mrs. Henry Church- by ittle Elsie Jane Richter, was interesting. Mrs. Bertha Thomason read

The Junior League to Meet Today.

The Junior League met Sunday, April II, at Flynn's Hall. Rabbi Dr. Simon officiated at the installation of the newly elected officers of the club. He explained inorning session includes the public the duties of public the duties of public the duties of the schools. Ernest L. Thurston: Assistant congratulated the newly elected officers superintendent Stephen E. Kramer and upon their election. He commended the retiring officers for the good work that they had accomplished during their administration, and he also commended the confidence of the stable school to the home, vocational education club upon its efforts in alding charitable us it must be to be of use and benefit cases in the city, and also for its conto the public school child, and the great nection with the Jewish Consumptive to the public school child, and the great clucational value of public speaking in the public schools. Valuable suggestions were also given to mothers as to how to keep the confidence of their boys, by Charles Stuart Alden.

Fully as inspiring was the afternoon seession with its absorbingly interesting the newly elected officers made a short address to the members of the club. The man recision with its absorbingly interesting the new president. Max Mincosky, appointed Kershenbaum, Arkin, Lear, Rosenfeld and C. Goldstein; press, Messrs, Charles Siegel and Harry Harowitz; printing, Messrs, Rosenfeld, Kershenbaum and C Goldstein. The president appointe Samuel Arkin as permanent sergeant-at-The next meeting is to be held at

The Anthony League Meets.

The some third in the convenient later bone. Mrs. Hendley continued her pecially visiting members of the Daughten in exhibition of visiting members of the Daughten wholesome tools for children of various ages. Menus for days' meals for children of from 2 to 5 years very also shown, as well as to a recommended and the abolition of slavery. An important Rev. J. G. Frost to Address she struggles against great the struggles against great the abolition of slavery. An important t

The League of American Pen
Women.

Week and are showing good work.

Mrs. Hendley's Tuesday afternoon readings will be continued Tuesday at the regular "at homes" held in apartment 075. The Portner, at 3:20 p. m. and plans are being made for a musical in May, the date to be announced later.

Monday Evening Club to Hear Speakers.

the symmetrical introduct the medium of by Ir. Alexander Graham Bell. This the league. Mrs. Blanche Tyler Boaton was appointed chairman of a committee of its speakers, is bound to be one of the man bell to be one of to ascertain the opinion of members in the most interesting and instructive of reference to the stupendous undertake the year's series.

The following new members were elect- National Association Rivers and Harbors in the chair. After the usual form of crab Court of this influential patriotic procedure, the meeting elected the folagazines and newspaners; Mrs. Ratio procedure, the meeting elected the following will be held in the oak room of the Federation of Women's Clubs. It. editor and publisher. Ms. bicaro, ill., editor and publisher. Ms. May 4 and 5: Mrs. William Henry Beck, by Mrs. John J. Myers, national countries.

Vashington Star.

S cordial invitation to the members to Mrs. Claxton extended an invitation to attend an outing at the country place.

Wednesday, April 23. "Ingleside," of Prof. L. H. Wilder Owing to the failure of notion of the ongressional bill, the Rivers and Har

Nursery Club Hears Judge Latimer.

The Friendship Nursery Club met at the residence of Mrs. J. P. Reed, 1813 Vernon street northwest, last Monday afternoon. A very instructive address on the ings of the Juvenile Court was given by Judge Latimer, which will prove very helpful to the ladies of this organization who are engaged in the care of the un-fortunate and destitute children, in con-nection with Friendship House. The nection with Friendship House. The meeting was an interesting one, and was well attended, the following ladies being present: Mrs. George Anthony, Mrs. Milo Atkinson, Mrs. A. P. Anderson, Mrs. R. Bradbury, Mabel Bradbury, Mrs. F. Barrows, Mrs. Bertha S. Ball, Mrs. W. C. Barnes, Mrs. F. B. Bourn, Mrs. F. W. Carden, Mrs. H. F. Chatfield, Mrs. A. B. Chatfield, Mrs. W. L. Clift, Mrs. R. P. Dye, Mrs. G. K. Denmark, Mrs. H. P. Gould, Mrs. Paul F. Grove, Mrs. Harvey Gram, Mrs. L. J. Gehr, Mrs. Greer, Mrs. J. C. Haley, Mrs. Kirk Holmes, Mrs. R. E. Logan, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. O. M. McPherson, Mrs. Maultby, Mrs. O. M. McPherson, Mrs. Maultby Mrs. G. M. Potter, Miss M. I. Penbody Mrs. Ruhl, Mrs. J. P. Reed, Mrs. F. 1 Shore, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Anna J. Thomas, Mrs. E. L. Washburn, Mrs. J. Waterman and Mrs. C. Zimmish.

Mildred Lee Society Entertains Guest.

Congress of Mothers held its first State convention Saturday, April 10, in the ball-room of the Raleigh. This was an all-day session, and its splendid program and large and appreciative audience made cration of Women's Clubs, Collegiate Club Elects Officers.

The semi-annual eletion of the Collegiate Club resulted in the affairs of the club being placed in the hands of the following, for the ensuing six months President, Joseph Stein; vice president, Sol S. Gleuck, recording secretary, Louis Elienbogen (re-elected); financial secre-tary, William Hazen; tresurer, Lawrence Koenigsberger; keeper of the seal, L. B. Lazarus; chairmen of the house com-mittee, William Hazen; member of the admission comittee, David Wiener,

The retiring officers were: President, David Wiener; vice president, Dr. J. Spielgeblatt; financial secretary, Samue Coopersmith; treasurer, E. M. Schwartz; keeper of the seal, Meyer Hirschmann; chairman of the house committee, Reuben Fink.

The club home is located at 1501

Eleventh street northwest and many ac-tivities are planned for the near future.

Club Women to Hear Mme.

Mountford.

Mine, Lydia Mountford will give an address on the "nativity," illustrated with oriental garments and fabrics, under the auspices of the District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs, at the Hamiline Methodist Episcopal Church, Ninth and P streets Sunday, April 18, at 5 Clock p. mr. The multiple and or a state of the columbia and the columbia at 8 o'clock p. m. The public, and es-pecially visiting members of the Daugh-ters of the American Revolution and club

Third street. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ellis Logan; first vice president, Mrs. W. S. Corby: econd vice president, Mrs. Mary Emerson Jackson, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas B. Kreamer, treasurer, Mrs. A. S. Douglas. Reports from mu-cles were full of interest and and chairmen of committees reported a full, busy, and prosperous year each year and commemorates the land-ing at Jamestown in 1607 of the first English settlers in America. The first from famous overtures (arranged by Colonial assembly ever convened in Bacon; the Musurgia Quartet, (a) Car-America was held at Jamestown, June mena (H. Lane Wilson); (b) "A Perfect Colonial assembly ever convened America was held at Jamestown, June mena (H. Lane Wilson); (b)

Court." All national officers and coun-illors and representatives of the twelve Court." The regular business meeting of the Woman's Contingent, National Association Rivers and Harbors, met at the apartment of Mrs. William Henry Beck, 214, the Portner, Monday, with the local president, Mrs. Leonard Harold Wilder, in the clair. After the usual form of local Court of this influential patriotic and meets monthly for the transport of the clair. After the usual form of local Court of this influential patriotic or the clair. State chapters will be present, and memcillor.

Federation of Home School Associations.

Mrs. Giles Scott Rafter, president of the District Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Associations, gave an informal talk Tuesday afternoon before the members of the Mother's Club of the Peabody School. The business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Leonard Doten, preceded the address and at the close refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

The theme of Mrs. Rafter's heart-toheart talk with the mothers was a pica for more honesty, more attention to the essentials of parental duties, and less atcention to dress, society, and all which should be subordinate interests in the rather in the establishment and main-tenance of a real home around which should cluster the brightest memories Mattie Ewing.

At the business session the club discussed the plans for the annual reception which is to be given May 7 to the parents of the school, at which school officials are to be the guests of honor. It was also decided to have a ten-ten party on June 1, the hostesses to be the president, Mrs. H. S. McKinley, Mrs. C. A. Man-ning, Mrs. S. V. V. Prince, Mrs. William Bayles, Mrs. Henry Knoch, Mrs. J. N. Saunders, Mrs. William B. Hardy, Mrs.

The pennant for the largest attendance of mothers was won by the sixth grade Miss Carpenter, teacher. Mrs. D. M. Curran and Mrs. C. A. Knauff

Stellar Dramatic Club to Give Play.

WITH THE WOMENS' CLUBS AMERICA'S MOST NOTED WOMEN CHOSEN then his cousin, Planquette, composer of The Chimes of Normandy." Among those will be considered the composer of Normandy. Among the chimes of Normandy." Among the chimes will be considered the composer of the chimes of Normandy." Among the chimes will be considered the chimes of Normandy." Among the chimes of Normandy. BY BOARD AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

MISS KATHERINE B. DAVIS.

MISS JANE ADDAMS.

San Francisco, April II.—The three most noted women in America today are Miss Katehrine B. Davis, commissiner of corrections in New York City; Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, and Mrs. Zekia Nuttall, fo Coyoncan, Mexico, according to the verdict in a chotest conducted by the Women's Board of the Panams-Pacific Exposition, which was open to all women in America.

Women's organizations, cities, and tows, and individuals were invited to nominate candidates for the contest, and hundreds of nominations were received. All ames were carefully considered by the Women's Board, and the three women named were the final choice

Miss Davis was chosen for her work in prison reform. Miss Addams was chosen for her social settlement work and Mrs. Luttall, for her work in archaeology.

One reward to each of the winners is and Mrs. Lutail, for her work in archaeology.

One reward to each of the winners is an invitation to steed a week at the extendion as the guest of the Women's leape, being shot as well as his wife Board. It is hoped that the winners are come to get her so that the exposition may entertain the three most noted women in America at the same time.

Chamber of Commerce Notes

those who survive him is Mrs. Berthe Rivailles-Gilchrist, his daughter, who is a teacher in Washington Seminary and choir director in one of the leading Catholic churches. Mme. Rivailles-till-christ is a sister-in-law of Miss Grace

Miss Alys E. Bentley, former director of music in the Washington public schools, and now connected with the Ethical Culture School in the department of music, in New York, will come here Friday, April Z., at 4:20 p. m., to present some of her pupils in a pregram of music interpretation at the Columbia Theater. Miss Bentley's work is widely reconstrated for its value in security of the second control for its value.

ognized for its value in strengthening mental and physical health. Miss Bent-ley's presentation claims attention from an artistic standpoint, as it establishes beauty of form, color, and movement, Mr. Sol Minster will direct the orchestra in the music program which includes compositions of Bach, Brahms, Esetho-ven, Schubert, and MacDowell, Miss Edith Athey will be at the piano,

George Herbert Wells is to be congratulated upon the success of the grand concert given by the sanctuary choir of St. Anthony's Church, under his direction last Friday evening at the Old Masonic Temple. The program was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present, as evidenced by the enthusiastic applicuse which followed the rendering of every

Alliance Française Enjoys

Gilchrist, also planist, of Washington

Chairman Corcoran Thom, on the plete half of the total. As the last house was undergoing its inspection Mrs. William T. Reed and Arthur Green gave a beautiful vocal recital before the faculty and students of Madison Hall Seminary on April 12. The following pro- all records getting to the fire, a small blaze on U streets. The work resident, Mrs. Mary Emer. overture, Stradella (Flotow); bando corresponding secretary, corresponding secretary, Sto. ineteoric, Waltz Caprice (Griffin), corresponding secretary, Sto. ineteoric, Waltz Caprice (Griffin), solo, ineteoric, Waltz Caprice (Griffin), corresponding secretary, Sto. ineteoric, Waltz Caprice (Griffin), solo, ineteoric, waltz Caprice (Griffin and auxiliaries towards the fund. Col. Harper reports subscriptions still

New Aquatic Records.

Chicago, April II.—Two world's records were low-ered in the National Amateur Athletic Union swimming commissionalities last office. The 160-yard seria was wen by A. C. Baithet, of the Illinois Athletic Club, in 54.25 accounts, elepting 1-5 of a

HOTELS.

Hotel Lenox Boylston and Exeter Streets BOSTON, MASS. One Block from

Copley Square Public Library Luxury and Economy

Rooms, $2.00; with Bath, $2.50 and up. le Rooms, $2.50; with Bath, $3.50 and up. Two minutes walk from Back Bay station, N.Y., N.H. & H.R.R. and B. & A.R.R. Convenient to Shopping and Theatre District L. C. PRIOR, Manager

SPRING RESORTS. ATLANTIC CITY.

HOTEL JACKSON VIRGINIA AVENUE AND BEACH.
Plast bonce from Boardwall, and Steel Pier. Eleter. Moderate rates.

J. H. GORMLET.

CLARENDON HOTEL Virginia Avenue, Near Beach.
Friente laths; rooms en aune with running water.
Write for free broklet. MONROE HUTCHINS.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS Applications for the table reliable E. E. Perper, H. S. Oniohundro, F. P. Penwick, E. J. Shape, L. L. Krentzlin, M. J. Lynch and F. S. Hight.

ard, accompanist,

The program will be as follows: Nordica Mandolin and Guitar Orches-tra, overture, Stradella (Flotow); banjo

Suite (Grieg); (a) Messrs, W. T. Dance; first mandolins, Messrs, W. T. Dance; first mandolins, Messrs, W. T. Holt and B. W. De Loss; second mandolins, Messrs, S. H. Beck and H. H. Teller; tenor mandola, Paul de Marco; octave mandola, J. B. Trotter; 'celle mandola, Dr. W. S. Whitman; guitars, mandola, de la companio de and (b) Polonaise, op. 33 (Chopiu), S. M. of the first Fabian: Nordica Banjo Club, selections

29. 1619.

The Colonial assembly of the Massachusetts colony was called "The General Memoirs o' Amour (W. T. Holt). The personnel of the club follows: Mandoline-Mr. S. H. Beck, Miss U. Berger, Miss M. C. Camfield, Mr. E. V. Miss C. E. Decker, Mrs. C. O. Dodge, Miss G. M. Eddy, Mr. A. A. Farrell, Miss Laura Hamilton, Mrs. C. R. Harris, Miss Loretto Healy, Mrs. T. N. Hendricks, Miss A. E. Hill, Mr. A. Y. Kwal, Mrs. B. Y. Kwal, Miss B. McKimmey, Miss Irene Marche, Miss Anne M Marsden, Mr. Walter Marr, Miss Mildred Miss Rose Moore, Mr. Donald Murray, Murray, Miss L. K. Simons, Mr. William Spaiding, Mr. Charles Stutsman, Mr. H. H. Teller, Miss Ada Thomas, Miss L. Whitaker, Mr. Roy Whitman, and Miss M. B. Young; mandolas-Mr. B. W. De Loss, octave mandola; Mr. Paul De Mar-co, tenor mandola; Mr. Josef Rosner, tenor mandola, and Dr. W. S. Whitman, cello mandola; guitars—Miss S. E. Beam-er, Mr. Dufour Brown, Miss C. L. Chewn-ing, Mr. C. O. Dodge, Mr. John H. Hicks.

> specialty of producing plays for religion and charity organizations. Among those new rehearsing are: Miss Sue Murray, Miss Mac Callahan, Miss Elleen Kendy, Miss Anna Tettoe, Miss Mamie Dugan, Miss Gertrude Clements, Joseph A. Kuhn, Harry Green, Francis Connolly, J. Edward Kirby, Michael

The Capitol Hill Laterary Society me ress, society, and all which Monday at the home of Mrs. Marion subordinate interests in the Guild Walporte, 1131 Park place north-She outlined the sims and east. A special musical and literary proideals of the organized motherhood of gram was rendered in honor of the eight-the country, and urged upon her hearers eenth anniversary of the society. The a deeper realization of the fact that the president. William G. Hunter, had charge mother should be a trained worker who of the program. Those who made ad-realizes that her supreme duty lies not dresses were Dr. James McKee, Capt in security school decorations social J. E. Hart, A. H. Frear, E. V. Carr realizes that her supreme duty lies not dresses were Dr. James McKee, Capt in securing school decorations, social J. E. Hart, A. H. Frear, E. V. Carr successes or well-fitted treasures, but James G. Kent, Mrs. Clara E. Kalstrom Mrs. James G. Kent. Mrs. Marion Guild Walporte, Mrs. Clara Clarvoe, and Mrs

The musical numbers included a pianduet by Mrs. A. H. Frear and Mrs. E. V. Carr; vocal solo by Mrs. Curtis Eisenger carr; vocal solo by Mrs. Curtis Eisenger, accompanied by Mrs. Curtis Eisenger; original poem by Mrs. Laura Burnette Lawson; vocal duet, A. H. Frear and Mrs. Clara E. Kalstrom, accompanied by Mrs. Frear; vocal solo, Mrs. Clara E. Kalstrom, accompanied by Miss Louise Thomson. A beautiful bunch of carna-Thomson. A beautiful bunch of carna tions was presented by Dr. and Mrs. James McKee to Mrs. Walporte, the founder and organizer of the society.

Pro-Re-Nota Club Elects Officers.

Pro-Re-Nota Club held its annual electertains Guest.

The Stellar Dramatic Club, the leading organization of its kind in Georgelarge of Gen. Robert Edward Lee, was the inguest of honor at the meeting of the memory of Gen. Washington. Mrs. E. A. Mildred Lee Society, Children of the Chamberlain, of Cambridge, Mass., read a descriptive paper of her travels in Italy, and told in detail of the cathedral letters.

The Stellar Dramatic Club, the leading organization of its kind in Georgelarge organization of its kind in George

If A. Colman, press, Mrs. W. B. Layles, Mrs. Mrs. B. Layles, Mrs. Mrs. Layles, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Coloris, April 18, in the First gene. Mrs. F. R. Brodium, information for the leagues work, and one calculated to enjoy and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect downson that the committee of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues work, and one calculated to expect the state of the leagues of the leag

Unto the Lord, for He Hath Triumphed Gloriously; four folk songs, for chorus, "Sorrow," Finnish (Paimgren); "Heart Ache." Slovak, (Diverak), for male voices; "Volga Boat Song," Russian, and "In the Fields," Russian, chorale and finale, "Meistersinger" (Wagner).

"Meistersinger" (Wagner).

Universal from the program notes of Shawi" (Hoynes), Mrs. W. T. Reed.

"Das Krout Ver Gessenheit" (Hildach), Iar without Suders G. Chairman Gude, of the Citizens' G. Chairman Gude, important organization in the musical life of Washington: "The concerts of the Motet Choral So-concerts. "Musically, the program is one of the most significant ever given by the Motet Choral Society. Bach, Handel, and Wager are portrayed in moments of profound inspiration. It includes one of the greatest motets of Bach, with a strong unusual appeal. 'Sleepers Awake!" the trumpet call to action. In the chorale and the apotheosis to art from Wagner's 'Meistersinger,' Hans Sachs, the poet-cobbler of Nurnberg (and so truly the 'master singer') glorifies art. and urges that its spirit remain a source of beauty, clear and uncontaminated.

"And who but the colossus Hundel bould project through music pictures of omnipotence as the descending pall of darkness, the ponderous weight of the hail stones, or the overbeiming destruction of the enemy? "In contrast, the folk songs show the imple life of the peasant, his sorrows, or, as in the Voica boat song, the ex hilaration of the rowers as they gradually near the distant birches, or, again, in the last folk song, the joy of a youth

At the Church of the Covenant this afternoon the music will be given by the double quartet, and in the evening by the evening choir of 100 voices, with solo quartet, both services being under the direction of Sydney Lloyd Wrightson, with Harvey Murray at the organ. The following are the musical numbers: Aft-ernoon—"Blest Comforter Divine" (Berwald); soprano solo, "Out of the Depths" (Rogers), Mrs. De Yo; "Holy, Holy, Holy" (Moir), incidental solos, Mrs. De Yo and Mr. Backing; "Sweet the Mo-ments Rich in Blessing" (Godfrey), in-cidental solo. Miss Harper; "In Heaven the Stars Now Are Shining" (Rhein-Evening-Organ prelude, "Pas-(Callaerts); "O Saviour of the World" (Goss); bass solo, "Song of Pent-tence" (Beethoven), Mr. Tittmann; "O incidental solos, Mrs. Downs and Mr. Tittmann: "God So Loved the World"

Mrs. Robert T. Frailey will give her annual recital in the Byron E. Parker Studio, Masonic Temple, 523 Eighth street northeast, on Friday, April 36. She will be assisted by Miss Bardswell, soprano; Miss Sharp, violinist; Wade Mitchell, the blind planist, and Miss Berman, soloist.

John Lamber Walker invites the pubtion Wednesday, a large number of members being present. The following officers by the Musurgia Quartet: Helen Donohus were elected: Mrs. Henry F. Blount, president; Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, vice contraito: Richard P. Backing, tenor; president; Mrs. Sarah Chace Guss, cor-

William Stansfield, organist and choir ing to America, associated with many director at the First Congregational eminent musicians of Europe, among

The Motet Choral Society, Otto Torney Simon, director, with Mrs. Otto Torney Simon and George H. Wilson at the planor, will give its second concert of bando its sixth season, at the Memorial Continuity of the planor, will give its second concert of bando its sixth season, at the Memorial Continuity of the planor of the Mrs. William T. Reed and Arthur Green.

The program to be presented for coming in the Library of Congress on Monday evening, April 19, at 8:15 p. m., in pavilion 7, to be given by the Schumann Concert Company, as-"The concerts of the Motet Choral Society have become a recognized factor in the musical life of Washington. Its art theories include the presentation of choral music through a definite technique, that encourages the repressive tone as a necessary medium for psychological expression; the selection of the inspirational periods of different composers, rather than the monotonous continuity of a single work; the consideration of the literary value of text, and the subdued lighting of the hall at its connected. Miss Grady; piano solo, "Garlands" (Godard); "Marche Mignonne" (Poldini), Miss Duffy; violin solo, "Second Mazurka" (Wieniawski), F. S. Hufty; reading, "Easter Lilies," Miss ton; piano solo. "Dawn" (Grieg); "Night Winds" (Wallace), Catherine (Grieg); L. Grady.

The program to be given today by Meyer Davis and his orchestra at the New Willard is as follows: Overture. "Fidelio" (Beethoven); "The Jewels of the Madonna" (Wolf-Ferrari): suite. "Scenes Pittoresques No. 1" net): "Second Hungarian Fantasia" (Tobani); valse. "A la bien nimee" (Schutt); soli for Pinaforte. op. 25. No. 1, in A flat (Chopin), "Reverie, op. 34. No. 5 (Schutt), "Song Without Words," op. 15, No. 2 (Mendelssohn), George Vaff; fantasia, "Madame Butterfly" (Puccint); "Sonata uasi Una Fantasia," op. 31, No. 2 (Beethoven), first movement, known as the "Moonlight Sonata; medley of Southern airs, "The Sunna Southern airs, the "Moonlight Sonata;" medley of Southern airs, "The Sunny South" (Lampe): two songs, "A Perfect Day," "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs-Bond); Symphony No. 5 in C minor (Beethoven); ballet music from "La Gloconda" (Ponchielli); "The Star Spangled Banner."

The Friday Morning Music Club gave a program last Friday of American com-posers. Miss Virginia Bestor played Mc-Dowell's "Keltic Sonata." Miss McCarty gave plane compositons of Huss. Kelley, and McDowell. The song com posers: Hawley, Johnson, Manney, ter, Barnes, Beimiston, Schneider, Protheroe, Woodman, and Goehl, were represented by Miss Church, Miss Bronson and Mrs. Wentz.

The Easter services coming on the first Sunday in the month the regular musical service was postponed until this evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Eleventh and H streets. The quartet numbers will be "My God I Love Thee" (Bennett), "Lord God Almighty" (Verdi), "Hark! Hark! My Soul" (Shelley), and "This I Know" (Cutts), the first number with incidental solo for tenor, second for bass, and last two for contralto, and soprano solo; "Aria from Isaiah" (Patten).

Mrs. Bertha Lincoln Heustis is substituting for the regular soprano who is ill. Mrs. Brylawski is the contralto, Mr. Gilder, tenor, and Mr. Roberts, bass Mrs. Bagly, who is the organist and di-rector, will play "Andantino Lemare Cantilene," by Marchant, and "Proce

Dr. Felix Thebault Rivailles, who die in Wilmington, Del., April 7, though known throughout the Eastern cities as president; Mrs. Sarah Chace Guss, cor-responding secretary; Miss Grace Miller Pierce, recording secretary; Miss Fanny B. Tuley, treasurer; Mrs. E. Frothing-ham Noble, director. Mrs. Blount read Wednesday evening. April 21, at 8:15 He was an excellent planist, a pupil of Gounod, the famous master, at Paris where he was born, and was, before com